THERE'S A BETTER WAY TO SECURE BONDS

AssuredPartners offers a variety of contract and commercial surety bonds designed to meet your specific project's needs.

CONTRACT BONDS

guarantee the performance of two parties covered by a written agreement. The most common types include bid, performance and payment bonds.

COMMERCIAL BONDS

comprised of several types of bonds categorized as judicial, license and permit, subdivision, and many miscellaneous bonds that provide guarantees of financial performance.

At AssuredPartners, your peace of mind is our highest priority. That's why our experienced team provides comprehensive services specifically tailored to your bonding needs. Our strength not only lies in our people, but in the company we keep. And since we represent the leading surety companies nationwide, our strength translates into greater capacity and better terms. It also enables us to adapt quickly to changing markets and deliver surety bond solutions that are both effective and efficient.

As a respected leader in the bonding industry, we have helped guide thousands of construction clients through a wide variety of traditional, Small Contract and Specialty Programs, including SBA's Bond Guarantee Program. Due to our excellent relationships with insurance carriers and surety underwriters, you get the benefits of a globally connected agency with the local service and responsive attention you deserve.

We understand the risks, exposures, capacity needs and challenges of the construction market in today's economic environment. We are dedicated to helping mitigate those challenges so you can focus on the operation and financial growth of your company.
